Dear Mr. Newman:

Herewith check for $350.00
covering your half interest in the $20.00
Cincinnati Demand Note of 1861 sold today to Mr. A. A. Grinnell for $700.00.

In view of the fact that the remainder of this lot only cost us $85.00
each, it might be an idea, if you agree, to divide the remainder between us. I would if you so desire, continue to market your bills, or if you wish to add them to your collection, that would also be all right with me. The division should be without difficulty and the bills easily identified in the future by their serial number.

I have also picked up a couple more St. Louis tokens.

With best regards,

Very truly yours,

Mr. B. C. Johnson

Dear Mr. Johnson:

I wish to acknowledge receipt of $3700.00 from you, being your portion of the purchase price of the Green Estate dimes and half dimes for the sum of $7000.00. Yesterday I forwarded a draft for $7000.00 to the attorneys for the estate and I presume there will be hesitation on the part of the Estate because it is not selling all of the items submitted.

As in our previous joint venture, we will each have an undivided half interest in the items. I am attending to the acquisition of them and you are to undertake selling them. I feel that if you have certain of the items already in stock you should give preference to the jointly owned items in selling them.

Do not count on my withdrawing an equal amount of the items until we have all our money back as my wife would consider the deal a loss to that extent.

I hope the coins come before I go on my vacation which will begin August 30.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Eric P. Hansen,
St. Louis, Mo.

Dear Mr. Hansen:-

Your letter of May 17th 1941, is recd.

It is rather futile to coin the hard before we catch him, and therefore it is useless to lay out a plan of procedure until or unless we get the coins. I have however been thinking the matter over and as feeling in regard a method of disposing of these coins to the best advantage which I will discuss with you as soon as we get the coins, if we do get them.

Since unfortunately I have nothing at all in major quantities in dimes and half dimes in stock at this time, and all the time only one gold, that point will not arise as to my own stock competing with these.

You will not be called upon to give any merchandise to balance this account; in fact it was at your own request my suggestion that the Clearwater Hill account was closed in this way the other day.

Let me I hope the same advice before you leave on your vacation, particularly as I want to get away after the middle of September.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Newman:

I sold a number of the Dimes today and although this is not a very large sale, it is a fair example of how the costs are running and will show you that it is going to be well worth our while for both of us to try and get as much of this material as possible.

This is a retail sale. Wholesale sales will not show quite as much profit. None of these coins were picked out for low costs but were just sold from the regular pricing. All the others of the same date and same condition bear the same cost.

Check for $73.75 enclosed herewith.

Dear Mr. Johnson:

Enclosed is a list of the slugs.

I will stay at the Verbazon Plaza Hotel. The vice president at the Chase National with whom I will be is Alexander McKenna and the co-administrator of the Green Estate with whom I am to meet is Mr. Potter.

I only expect to stay over from November 20 to November 23, but if necessary I will remain Monday, November 24.

I will phone you at 2414 Mar 2490, Station to Station at 6 P. M. St. Louis time on Friday November 21 if that is satisfactory. If I need you to come on or if I call at any other time I'll call person to person.

I am never home as early as much better if you called the office -

Thank you for sending the list
of slugs.

Today, Mr. Koseoff of New York
is here. I hope I can get a little work done now and then between visits.

Received a check for $500.00 from Mr. Kelly today but he did not specify what it was for - simply to be placed to his credit
so it may be for the last invoice or for goods sold from earlier invoices of my stock. I believe, however, he will sell about the amount mentioned on the dimes and 1/2 dimes invoice.

Dear Mr. Newman:

This morning I received another $500.00 check from Mr. Kelly. I am inclined to think that the last two $500.00 remittances are practically all from the funds he ~~has~~ ^{got} when here last and I ~~am~~, therefore, enclosing $500.00 for your share of this $1000.00.

I am quite sure if he has not been able to sell this much of the lot yet, he is certain to do so later. Please carry this to my credit and I will report the coins when he lets me know.

Dear Mr. Johnson:-

The material came Saturday afternoon and I could not call you because I did not know it had come until suppertime. There are two Lincoln head nickel patterns. There are over 600 nickels but there are a substantial number which are muck. The paper money is superb - three California items, one Brigham Young, a few sheets of Colonial currency, three Texas Star bills, an autograph of Robert Fulton, Robert Morris, Michael Hillegas. There are about three sets of the later Montgomery issue. $20.00 a day is cheap for my amusement, but the keys did not fit the trunks and I had to separate out the paper money from about five or six different collections to see what was there and I still don't know.

I am inclined to hesitate about sending forward the thousand dollars for the three additional nickels. I thought I might write a letter explaining that I would like to see the offers on the other money first because I would rather not buy so much of one kind before I expended my limit. In other words, I want them to state their other prices before proceeding with the purchase on the ground that I am liable to run out of money. If you feel that this procedure will prejudice our future purchases I will not undertake it, but I don't think they would mind if I put it in a very nice way.

With very best wishes for the Holiday Season,

Sincerely yours,

EPN:VC

Dear Mr. Newman:

I enclose check for $135.04
covering goods reported sold to date.

All that Mr. Elder has sent is a check without any statement of his purchases but I imagine about $125.00 is due you so I am remitting that amount and,
of course, when his returns are received, an itemized statement will be made.

Wishing you and yours a Merry
Christmas and a Happy New Year, I am

Sincerely yours,

Dec. 24 481

Dear Mr. Newman:

Your letter of Dec. 22 to Land. Glad the paper money is splendid. Am also glad there are 2-5¢ pieces in metal. Worth. I should say 1.5" each - hope there are also one or two in bronze.

As to the 5¢ 1813
Liberty heads - if a firm and unqualified offer was made by you - as was the case as I recall it - it would I believe do harm to possibility of future offers being accepted -
not to carry out the affair
in full - It seems to me
that it would probably be best to try to cut down
some future price of coins

by a counter offer say 250"
lower thereby cutting down
on the three meals to 750"
which I believe would be O.K. In few words - beg them
now and attempt to get back 250" by counter
offer on something else
later on - But I leave
the final decision entirely
to you - yours on the ground - whatever you do in the matter
will be O.K. to me -

Splendid weather down
here. Clear. Warm -
and flowers in bloom.

Best regards for 1942

Samuel S. Brown
